Dominica ROSEAU, Oct. 19 (CANAL) Dominica has set up a tribunal in the continuing efforts at settlement in the dispute between the Waterfront and Allied Workers Union (WAWU) and the Roseau Town Council which led to a strike by garbage collectors.

Under Dominican laws, a tribunal is set up, strikers should resume; but in this case union president Louis Benoit told CANAL "We are not going back to work... We have ignored that (the appointment of the tribunal).

The Minister of Home Affairs has not called in the union or written us to discuss the matter," he added. Daily-paid workers of the council clean the streets and work in the cemetery.
