

Evening Time: Three Artists. 3 Countries. On Page! On Screen! On Stage!

Three multi-disciplinary artists from 3 different countries share their culture, traditions and talents.

- On Page! – Andrene Bonner (Jamaica)
"Olympic Gardens is a powerful evocation of the life of an unwanted child. Bonner writes with a keen eye for telling events and an ear for the details of island life." – Jamaica Observer
- On Screen! - Merle Collins (Grenada)
Saracca and Nation. "Saracca" commemorates the harvest. "Nation" refers to the "Big Drum Nation Dance". These "re-creation" owe their existence to inherited memory of Africa within the Caribbean spaces.
- On Stage! - Ron Bobb-Semple (Guyana)
Spirit of Marcus Garvey: a captivating presentation that pulls heavily on Garvey's writings and places the legendary pan-Africanist's message in a modern context.
